Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Our Present Gaol System Deeply Depraving to the Prisoner and a Positive Evil to the Community: Some Remedies Proposed It is an interesting feature in connection with the treatment of criminals, that with the legislature, and also the public at large, there is evidently a growing concern evinced for the reformation of our penal code in its disciplinary application, and although the writer of the ensuing pages dares not presume to imagine that he has solved the problem of the proper treatment of offenders, he has nevertheless ventured briefly and consecutively to review the various modes of punishment which have been adopted in our gaols; to give the result of his own deliberate conviction, deduced from extensive and continuous observation of the proceedings in this and other countries towards that portion of fallen humanity requiring legislative interposition, and to offer suggestions as to some of the remedies for the eradication of the evils to which they have been exposed. It will be observed that the gaol association of criminals is stated to be a cardinal evil, and that their separate confinement is maintained to be a fundamental corrective; and examples are supplied of its successful application. There exists, however, a diversity of opinion with regard to the term for which individual imprisonment should be applied; but, if it be admitted that as a mode of treatment it is sound in principle, the necessity and importance will be acknowledged of adapting it to uniform and general practice. Our penal administration has respect to two classes of commitments - summary convictions, and convictions at assizes and sessions.
