On September 4th the following announcement of the formation of the Free Labour Protection Association appeared in several London papers: - A Private Meeting of influential employers and representatives of the principal Employers Associations in the United Kingdom was held at 7, Victoria Street, Westminster, on Friday, July 16th, to discuss a proposal to form a National Organization for the Defence of Free Labour. The chair was taken by the Right Hon. the Earl of Wemyss. On the motion of Colonel H. C. Dyer (President, the Employers Federation of Engineering Associations), seconded by Mr. G. A. Laws (General Manager, The Shipping Federation, Limited), the following resolution was unanimously adopted: - That, in the opinion of this representative meeting of employers, it is desirable to form a Free Labour Protection Association, having for its objects - I. To test systematically the efficiency, or otherwise, of the existing laws for the protection of Non-Unionists, and, if...
