Brand New Book  Print on Demand .THE SUN WAS BEGINNING TO LIGHTEN in the east when Jenny turned the heavily laden Outback toward the Mutual Assistance Group s retreat. It was a good two hour drive and Jenny said a silent prayer, Please, God, let me get my children to a safe place before anything happens. But, as she was about to find out, it is one thing to make it to a safe place and quite another for her and her children to survive in a post-apocalyptic world. To live they would need to adapt and her young son Craig would need to get tough, as tough as a Cowboy. ABOUT THE AUTHOR Jerry D Young was born at home, in Senath, Missouri July 3, 1953. At age 5 the family rented a small farm house on an active farm 40 miles southwest of St. Louis. While the family weren t farmers, they lived something of a homestead type life, raising a milk cow, sometimes two, and calves, a pig or two, chickens, and the occasional goat. Along with the stock, a large garden helped to feed Jerry s three brothers and two sisters for several years. Fishing and hunting contributed to the pantry, as did foraging the wild edibles on the property. At the age of 14, the family, minus a brother and two sisters that were now adults and on their own, moved back to Senath. Having been encouraged from an early age to read, Jerry was a regular patron of the Senath Branch Library. A love of a good story was born within him, and shortly before graduating high school, for a lack of stories that he liked...
