Xulon Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . If one can have earthly power, fame, and fortune, but truly prosper none, then is it also true that one can have not a cent, but have everything in Christ Jesus? In a time of unprecedented financial challenges in the United States, this is the most pressing question for a Christian nation. Do we really believe God can do anything in our lives? Are we really committed to making responsible financial decisions? It is not enough to understand that the issue is larger than just credit card debt; we have to take a sincere and practical look at how the average person can do his or her part to relieve their financial burdens and improve their personal economy. The essential elements of our livelihood—a home, an education, a vehicle, a birth, a burial—all put the average American into serious debt that can truly take over a person's life. One in a million win the lottery or make hundreds of thousands off a few investments. What about the rest of us? This book will show you...
